

JOB SEARCH RESOURCES

Employment Services provides many resources for those seeking employment. From personalized coaching to workshops and job-search groups, individuals can receive help finding their next job. These services can be accessed by going to employment.ChurchofJesusChrist.org or visiting the nearest Employment Center.

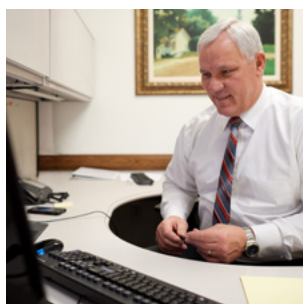

Active Job Search

Attend a 90-minute meeting led by an online employment adviser. These meetings refine job-search skills, set goals, share job leads, and connect job seekers.

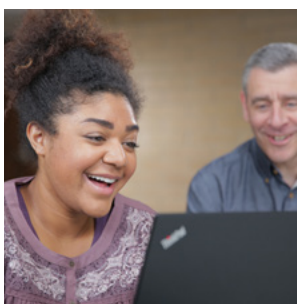

Job-Search Skills Workshops

Workshops are offered Monday through Thursday on skills such as writing résumés, finding job leads, and preparing for interviews.

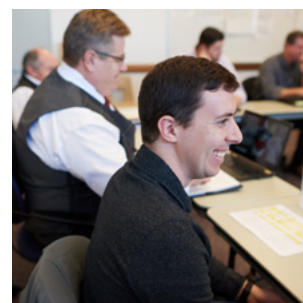

Ask an Expert

This 60-minute open forum is led by employment professionals. Job seekers can ask questions about their job search or simply listen to the experiences of other job seekers.

One-on-One Coaching

Job seekers may receive one-on-one coaching to help them strengthen job-search skills. They can register at employment.ChurchofJesusChrist.org to be assigned to a coach.

Employment Centers

All are welcome in Employment Centers, where job seekers can receive face-to-face job coaching, prepare for interviews, use the computers and phones to network, update résumés, and more.
